

People in the News
Pensacola News Journal

Pensacola, Fla. – December 27, 2009 - Denise T. McLeod, vice president and chief operating officer, Landrum Staffing Services, has been appointed to the newly formed Labor, Education and Health Council of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

As a council member, McLeod will provide advisory guidance about the focus of the council initiatives. In addition, she will share insights on current economic conditions from the prospective of employment and human resources.